How Much Is Too Much? (Determiners)

A1 – A2

Module 10

ALBERT

Summary

Here's What We Will Be Learning in this Presentation:

- ❑ Let us learn about some common determiners.
- ❑ Exercises.

ALBERT

Determiners are words put in front of a noun to show exactly what the noun refers to.

For example: This is my house. (my= determiner, house= noun)

Where is the newspaper? (the= determiner, newspaper= noun)

There are many determiners in the English language. Some of them are articles, possessive pronouns, etc.

ALBEꟼT